Natural origin components

COLD PRESSED FIRST GRADE MARROW SEED OIL

These specific vegetal sterols possess a structure very close to natural steroidal sexual hormones and are traditionally used as a nutritional supplement for men, particularly those around or older than 50. Since ancient Egypt, marrow seed have been used to prepare Mastahaleb, a highly-nutritious recipe destined to provide men with strength and vitality and that also refreshes them and stimulates urination. The marrow seed helps in the upholding of a normal prostate and urinary flow.

NON HYDROGENATED PALM NUT OIL

Natural source of lauric and palmitic fatty acids, tocopherols and tocotrienols (Vitamin E). Palm nut oil is used to protect cells against oxidative stress.

FRESH ONION CONCENTRATE

Rich in organic-sulfuric phytonutrients, this fresh onion extract would contribute to the protection of vessels according to its traditional use and various researches.
